

WHY ASUS?

ASUS provides a wide range of solutions for the enterprise market, aimed at system integrators build who need to design superb systems for use in corporate, government and education sectors. ASUS enterprise products incorporate many excellent features that meet the standards required by enterprise customers such as Intel® vPro technology support, 24/7 stability, smart security, guaranteed long-term availability and standards-based manageability. In addition to great products, fast product development, reliable manufacturing, ASUS offers speedy shipping and global technical support – and unrivalled combination that keeps us on top.

Extensive testing for extreme reliability, compatibility and safety

We are the world's biggest motherboard manufacturer, renowned for design thinking that revolves around users – just like you. Our engineers employ exacting standards to guarantee quality throughout the product's life, choosing the finest components for real-world protection.

Keeping Environment in Mind

We at ASUS are fully committed to creating a sustainable future. We believe in adopting an eco-friendly approach towards every aspect of our business, and in being an active participant in environmental assessment programs for a geener tomorrow. This is where the GreenASUS philosophy comes in – from our internal practices to our production processes – we remain focused on safeguarding our planet.